Hinge Moments

A hinge moment is when the trajectory of your life changed. Examples of hinge moments include: marriage, change in jobs, relocation, graduation, divorce, or death. Questions to reveal hinge moments include:

- How did relationships impact my life direction?
- What major life events sent me in a new direction?
- How did tragedy or loss mark a new chapter in my life?
- What recognitions, achievements or promotions created a new trajectory for my life?
- What spiritual awakenings (conversion) changed me?

“Before I can tell my life what I want to do with it, I must listen to my life telling me who I am.” —Parker J. Palmer

WHAT IS A LIFE DISCOVERY GRID?

A Life Discovery Grid is a simple tool designed to reveal important patterns in your life. It does this by stimulating the awareness and connection of significant life events and relationships. Once the grid has been completed, it can be presented to others within the process group.

WHY DO A LIFE DISCOVERY GRID?

The Life Discovery Grid is the first tool on the Personal Clarity Journey that connects to the “Courage to Know” Imperative on the Clarity Spiral. The tool guides an individual through reflective work that will provide a context for other tools along the way. The Grid can also create a structured process for building community and inspiring worship within any small group setting. Every time you share your Life Discovery Grid, there is an incredible potential for fellowship, laughter, reflection and encouragement. Life Discovery Grids can bring people to a great awareness of what God is doing in life and a greater intensity to follow Christ. The primary focus in a Life Discovery Grid is God; the process allows the group to reflect on God’s goodness and grace as it reflects itself differently in every person. The secondary focus is you; what has God been doing through you and preparing for your life?

HOW IS A LIFE DISCOVERY GRID STRUCTURED?

A Life Discovery Grid is a blank grid for you to record specific people and events. The grid allows you to divide your life into five chapters. These chapter divisions are completely up to you based on natural dividing points in your life experience. To help you think through the five life chapters, we start with The Life–Line tool. The grid includes 5 “H’s” that help focus the people and events for you to record:

- Heritage
- High Points
- Hard Times
- Hand of God
- Heroes

HOW TO PREPARE A LIFE DISCOVERY GRID

Step #1 Use the Life-Line tool to chart your top ten "hinge moments."

Each hinge moment can be scored on a scale of one to ten either as a hard time hinge moment or a high point hinge moment. Some hinge moments will have a mixture of both. Don't worry about a "right answer;" simply use the tool to stimulate reflection.

Step #2 Identify the chapters of your life story.

- Think about natural divisions of your life after completing the Life-Line. Examples may include early childhood years, college, single, before children, preparation, Vermont years, My 30s, First Baptist years, multiplication, etc.
- Record these on the Discovery Grid and be as creative as you want with the titles.

Please complete the Life Discovery Grid worksheet on pg. 10 of your Younique Experience Notebook.

What if the positive and negative turns in your life have prepared you for something great? —Donald Miller

Step #3 Identify the characters and events of your life story by filling in 2-5 bullet points in each square of your grid.

Heritage—that which comes or belongs to one by reason of birth; an inherited lot or portion.*

—Random House Dictionary

HERITAGE

- What qualities in my parents influenced me most?
- What was the atmosphere in my home as I grew up?
- What cultural or ethnic factors influenced me?
- What geographic factors influenced me?
- What financial factors influenced me?
- How did my parents define success?
- What were the types of brokenness in my home?
- How do heritage factors continue to influence me beyond childhood?

Hero—a person who, in the opinion of others, has heroic qualities or has performed a heroic act and is regarded as a model or ideal.

—Random House Dictionary

HIGH POINTS

- What experiences demonstrate my abilities?
- What successes have I enjoyed?
- What events have brought me great joy?
- What season of life has been my happiest?
- How have I made significant contribution to others?
- What memories do I daydream about?

HARD TIMES

- Who or what has been a source of pain in my life?
- What do I tend to harbor bitterness toward?
- Where do my deepest disappointments lie?
- What injustices have I had to suffer?
- What addictions and abuse have I been exposed to?
- What incidents are hard to talk about with others?

HAND OF GOD

- What were the most life-changing moments in my life?
- When and how have I been awakened to God?
- What blessings have I received that I did not know were blessings at the time?
- What "God Memories" are forever etched in my mind?
- When did I first start thinking about God?
- How has God directed me through supernatural experiences, encounters or communication?

- Who have I looked up to or admired?
- Who has influenced me for good?
- Whose life would I like to model mine after?
- Who has given me inspiration; who has believed in me?
- Who has shaped my character and life direction?
- What parents, relatives, neighbors, teachers, coaches and friends could be heroes?

Make sure that for each of the 5 "H's", you write down specific words or phrases that will bring a character or event to your mind when you present your Life Discovery Grid.

Step #4 Name your chapter titles

Step #5 Discover God's authorship in your life.

After your Life Discovery Grid is complete, continue to reflect so that you can identify and record patterns. Use the questions on the following page as a guide.

The Three Life Drifts

Read Luke 4:1-14

THE 3 TEMPTATIONS OF JESUS¹

1. The Temptation of _____

The issue of Appetite is _____ and _____.

2. The Temptation of _____

The issue of Ambition is _____ and _____.

3. The Temptation of _____

The issue of Approval is _____ and _____.

“But if I am to let my life speak things I want to hear, things I would gladly tell others, I must also let it speak things I do not want to hear and would never tell anyone else! My life is not only about my strengths and virtues; it is also about my liabilities and my limits, my trespasses and my shadow. An inevitable though often ignored dimension of the question for ‘wholeness’ is that we must embrace what we dislike or find shameful about ourselves as well as what we are confident and proud of.”

—Parker J. Palmer

THE POWER OF THE CROSS

- What Jesus resisted personally in the desert determined the power with which He lived.
- What Jesus defeated permanently at the cross determines the power in which we can live.
- At the cross, Jesus becomes everything that too often plagues us.

AT THE CROSS

1. In Regard to Appetite:

Jesus becomes needy so we can be _____.

2. In Regard to Ambition:

Jesus becomes weak so we can be _____.

3. In Regard to Approval:

Jesus becomes rejected so we can be _____.

“What Jesus resisted in the desert personally, he defeated at the cross permanently.” —Dave Rhodes

Life Drift: Instead of going to the cross with our brokenness we tend to multiply our brokenness by medicating our primary issues with secondary issues.

CORE ISSUES OF THE 3 A'S:

1. The Core Issue of Appetite is _____ .

Fear says: “I’ll never _____ enough!

2. The Core Issue of Ambition is _____ .

Guilt says: “I’ll never _____ enough!

3. The Core Issue of Approval is _____ .

Shame says: “I’ll never _____ enough!

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Go back into each chapter of your life story and identify which Life Drift (temptation) you struggled with in each chapter.
2. Think through how you multiplied that brokenness or took it to the cross.
3. Identify directly the lies you were tempted to believe in light of this in each chapter.
4. Identify the gospel truth that you now believe or should believe in light of each lie.

Life Drifts Grid Example 1-Chad P.

CHAPTER TITLES	Trying Out	Getting Cut	Making the Team	Starting Line-Up
Primary Drift (Core)	Ambition	Appetite	Ambition	Ambition
Secondary Drift (Presenting)	Approval	Approval	Approval	Approval
Life Lie #1 (God)	God was confined to organized church	God would protect me no matter what and God is dependent on me	God did not care if I enjoy in in the church	God would protect all of us fighting for discipleship
Life Lie #2 (Life)	Actions don't have consequences	My actions were not negatively affecting others	Life in church would be boring. I would always have to sacrifice my family.	Tragedy won't come my way. People I trust and look up to will never let me down.
Life Lie #3 (Yourself)	I was invincible. I could party and excel in sports and athletics would carry me.	I had found enlightenment. I was making a positive difference in the world.	I had to be a pastor like my dad. I was savior of the church.	I would never get my chance. I'm better than other leaders around me.
Life Truth	God has called me	Community and relationships are vital. How you treat others really does matter.	God really does love me and has my best interest at heart	Don't have to compete against others/churches. Learn to love wife, parent, children are important

Life Drifts Grid Example 2-Kathy R.

CHAPTER TITLES	Happy	Hurt	Health	Hope	Hacked
Primary Drift (Core)	Appetite	Approval	Ambition	Appetite	Approval
Secondary Drift (Presenting)	Ambition	Ambition	Appetite	Approval	Ambition
Life Lie #1 (God)	God is not stable	God Does not care about Me.	Was God who he said he is? I should feel guilty for not living fully for him.	God gives us just enough but will always keep you on the verge of breakthrough	God wants me to sacrifice and to die to everything.
Life Lie #2 (Life)	People are always mean and self serving	That people are cruel. There are no real friendships in life.	That in an isolated bubble everything is perfect.	Our perfect life would never change and we would always be one big happy family	That we need to submit to and serve others and never question things.
Life Lie #3 (Yourself)	Were not likeable enough as a family/person to have long lasting relationships. Fear I was not enough You can't control others but you can control yourself and your response to things.	I was messed up. Was not good enough for someone to like. If you came around me you would leave. God was always there.	If you run away from your past it will never find you. God wants me to thrive in relationships with him and others.	That I had to work really hard in managing relationships Life is meant to live in Community and doing life that way is worth everything.	That I was not a good leader. I would never be worthy of being adopted into someone else's family God is a god of Freedom. He wants us to LIVE Fully, in community where you can fully be your true self.

The Power of a Name

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Two Biblical Patterns in Naming

1. Sometimes we need a name _____.
 - Jacob becomes _____. (Genesis 32)
 - Simon becomes _____. (John 1, Matthew 16)
 - Saul becomes _____. (Acts 13)

Each of these name changes affected not who just each of these people were, but also the calling they were destined to fulfill.

2. Sometimes we need to _____ our name.
 - Gideon means _____. (Judges 6)
 - In this case, it wasn't that Gideon was named wrongly, it was just that he needed the courage to live up to his name.

“Ask what makes you come alive and go do it. Because what the world needs is people who have come alive.” —Howard Thurman

My Names Reflection

Write the names that people have spoken over you—both good and bad:

Now take 30 minutes and in quiet and stillness ask God if there are any names He gives you. Think through all the names God calls his children throughout Scripture. Also, give time and pause for God to speak directly to you. Write down the names that come to your mind during this time alone:

Name Calling

Fill out the following chart by looking up your name and finding out what it means.

What I Learned

Sense of Accomplishment

Think reflectively about your current job or work experiences in the past. Anything in your work history is valid for this exercise. If you have limited work experience, think back to school projects, home chores or any environment where you were actively contributing.

Your job involves many tasks, functions, steps or situations in order to do what you do. Your goal is to identify and rank the kinds of activities that give you the deepest sense of satisfaction or accomplishment. One key perspective is not to be distracted by rewards. In other words, don't let the appreciation or accolades of others influence your decision. Don't take into consideration what most impresses your employer or your supervisor. Reflect only on what gives you a deep sense of accomplishment internally. These are things that give an overwhelming feeling of internal motivation, that no one else sees. You might call these tasks or situations your "motivated moments."

Rank the tasks, steps, functions or situations that give you the greatest sense of accomplishment internally, in the boxes below:

#1 Sense of Accomplishment

#2 Sense of Accomplishment

#3 Sense of Accomplishment

#4 Sense of Accomplishment

#5 Sense of Accomplishment

"You are never too old to set another goal or to dream a new dream."

Ability 360

For this interview tool, take some time to talk with people that have worked closely with you. Consider interviewing co-workers or friends from previous work environments to enable more transparency in seeking objective feedback. Consider input from people who have worked “above you” or “below you” in the organization.

How to Write a LifeCore Statement

LifeCore: Your top four core values for guiding the rest of your life decisions.

Everyone is motivated by something. Everyone values something. By defining our life convictions we take a significant step toward aligning our life – thoughts, decisions, and behaviors – with the ideals that are most important to us. Given the dozens of things that matter to you, what are your core four?

GETTING STARTED

As you will do in several exercises in the Yunique Experience, create a long list from which you will narrow down your core four. Use any and all tools, conversation and reflection from this process.

- What motivates you most deeply in life?
- What convictions do your heroes model and stand for?
- Who are you when you are at your best?
- What is always true about you no matter what you are doing, where you are or who you are with?

Distill your life convictions by choosing one word, two words or a short phrase format to define them. Record the four life convictions on your Life Frame Worksheet.

FOR EXAMPLE:

One word

Learning

Intimacy

Joy

Two word

Carnivorous Learning

Close relationships

Rooted Joyfulness

Short phrase

Asking questions before giving answers

Loving and being loved, deeply

Happiness that transcends circumstance

Six Word Challenge

Legend has it that one day Ernest Hemingway was walking down the sidewalk when a woman came up to him and challenged him to write a compelling story in six words or less. Hemingway took the challenge and later emerged from his study with this six word story — For Sale: Baby's Shoes. Never Worn. In those six short words Hemingway stirred our emotions and stoked our imaginations. To think that so much could be said in such few words is absolutely remarkable.

As we think about our calling statements, we want to issue you a six word challenge. Based on your two words, how would you articulate with stunning clarity your two words to someone else in six words?

Six Word Calling Statement Examples

Dave R.

Kim R.

6 Words: "Coaching people everywhere with the gospel"

12 Word Challenge

Take your six word statement and now use your Sweet Spot Inventory to fill out your calling statement by adding six more words—to make a total of 12 words:
